

John 4 (13-14):

Jesus answered, "Everyone who drinks this water will get thirsty again. But no one who drinks the water I give will ever be thirsty again. The water I give is like a flowing fountain that gives eternal life."

Luke 15 (v4):

If any of you has a hundred sheep, and one of them gets lost, what will you do? Won't you leave the ninety-nine in the field and go look for the lost sheep until you find it?

Luke 11 (2-4):

So Jesus told them, "Pray in this way: 'Father, help us to honour your name. Come and set up your kingdom. Give us each day the food we need. Forgive our sins, as we forgive everyone who has done wrong to us. And keep us from being tempted.'

Luke 19 (9-10):

Jesus said to Zacchaeus, "Today you and your family have been saved, because you are a true son of Abraham. The Son of Man came to look for and to save people who are lost."

Mark 10 (14-15):

"Let the children come to me! Don't try to stop them. People who are like these little children belong to the kingdom of God. I promise you that you cannot get into God's kingdom, unless you accept it the way a child does."

Luke 4 (v18):

"The Lord's Spirit has come to me, because he has chosen me to tell the good news to the poor. The Lord has sent me to announce freedom for prisoners, to give sight to the blind, to free everyone who suffers."

Matthew 5 (43-44):

You have heard people say, "Love your neighbours and hate your enemies." But I tell you to love your enemies and pray for anyone who mistreats you.

Mark 5 (27-29):

The woman had heard about Jesus, so she came up behind him in the crowd and barely touched his clothes. She had said to herself, "If I can just touch his clothes, I will get well." As soon as she touched them, her bleeding stopped, and she knew she was well.

John 11 (1-2 & 5-7):

A man by the name of Lazarus was sick in the village of Bethany. He had two sisters, Mary and Martha. This was the same Mary who later poured perfume on the Lord's head and wiped his feet with her hair. Jesus loved Martha and her sister and brother. But he stayed where he was for two more days. Then he said to his disciples, "Now we will go back to Judea."

Matthew 5 (10-12):

When Jesus was alone with the twelve apostles and some others, they asked him about these stories. He answered: I have explained the secret about God's kingdom to you, but for others I can use only stories. The reason is, "These people will look and look, but never see. They will listen and listen, but never understand. If they did, they would turn to God, and he would forgive them."

Matthew 11 (v28):

If you are tired from carrying heavy burdens, come to me and I will give you rest.

John 3 (v16):

God loved the people of this world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who has faith in him will have eternal life and never really die.

Matthew 9 (v2):

Some people soon brought to him a crippled man lying on a mat. When Jesus saw how much faith they had, he said to the crippled man, "My friend, don't worry! Your sins are forgiven."

Luke 9 (v11):

But a lot of people found out about this and followed him. Jesus welcomed them. He spoke to them about God's kingdom and healed everyone who was sick.

John 15 (v15):

I don't call you servants any longer, because servants don't know what their master is doing. Instead I call you friends, because everything I heard from my Father I have made known to you.

Luke 7 (v34):

But because the Son of Man goes around eating and drinking, you say, "Jesus eats and drinks too much! He is even a friend of tax collectors and sinners."
