

Holy Spirit: ghost or Holy Ghost?

Introduction:

The aim of this session encourages the young people to discuss the Holy Spirit and understand the Biblical roots as well as how the Holy Spirit impacts Christian lives today.

Aims & objectives:

- To explore the characteristics of the Holy Spirit.
- To deepen the young people's understanding of how the Holy Spirit transformed Christian lives in the early church.
- To understand how the Holy Spirit can impact their own lives and faith.

Materials: 'True or False' statements and Bible verses.

Activity...

True or false?

To begin the fourth session arrange the group in the centre of the room for a game of 'True or false'. One by one read out the statements about the Holy Spirit (on the next page) encouraging the young people to vote as to whether they think the statements are true or false. After each answer, the Bible verses provided can be used as a scripture reference to clarify the statements (these can also be found on the last page).

Conclude the opening activity, stating that the Holy Spirit is often misunderstood and this session will help the young people unpack who and what the Holy Spirit is to the Christian faith.

What is the Holy Spirit?

Materials: Laptop/equipment to play a You Tube clip.

After the clip invite the young people to feed back on what it says to them about the Holy Spirit.

Pentecost

Materials: Pens and copies of the 'Explore' worksheet (quiz/answers and Acts 2 Bible reading).

Explain to the group that Pentecost is a very special event when the Church celebrates the gift of the Holy Spirit as recorded in the book of Acts. Whilst asking the young people how much they know about Pentecost, hand around copies of the Quiz worksheet - give a prize for the highest score.

After you have gone through the answers, read the story of Pentecost together in Acts 2: 1-21 and 2: 43-47. From the reading, ask the young people their thoughts on the passage and ask the following questions:

- How did the disciples respond to the outpouring of the Holy Spirit?
- How do you think people would respond if something similar happened to the Church today?

Going deeper...

Fruit of the Spirit

Materials: Copies of the 'Going deeper' worksheet.

Continuing on from the previous activity, clarify to the group that Pentecost was a very special event but the Holy Spirit was not exclusive to the early church. The Holy Spirit enables and equips the Church today through the gifts the Spirit pours out on those who believe in God. In small groups read Galatians 5: 16-26 and answer the questions:

- 1) How do the fruits as described in Galatians help reveal God to people?
- 2) Which fruits of the Spirit would you say are most important?
- 3) Which fruits of the Spirit would you say you display in your life?
- 4) Recognising that Christians do not express the fruits of the Spirit all of the time, are there any fruits of the Spirit that you struggle with?
- 5) How can the Holy Spirit equip you to live out your Christian life in your family, friendships, school and community today?

Pause...

Feasting on the Spirit

Materials: A selection of different fruits chopped up and placed in a large bowl.

To begin the reflection, invite the young people to gather around the bowl. Explain that the bowl represents the source of the fruits of the Spirit. Then invite the young people to share the fruit with one another. Each time they hand a piece of fruit to someone else say, "May the Holy Spirit help you to express its fruits". The person responds by saying, "Amen". Finish the reflection saying the prayer below together, leaving several seconds in between each 'fruit' to allow time for the young people to think about what each word might mean to them.

May we all express...

Love,
Joy,
Peace,
Patience,
Kindness,
Goodness,
Faithfulness,
Gentleness,
Self control,
Amen.
