

Similar to the previous activity, six more scenarios are described below but this time the young leaders are misusing or abusing their leadership position. Each scenario corresponds to a value, however they depict the flipside of each value - can you match them up with the correct scenario?

ARROGANCE
( HUMILITY )

WEAKNESS
( COURAGE )

FOOLISH
( WISDOM )

DISRESPECT
( RESPECT )

IRRESPONSIBLE
( TRUST )

DISHONESTY
( INTEGRITY )

Scenario

Flipside value?

1

The Church runs a popular after-school club for primary-aged children. During club time a tuck shop sells sweets. To save time an assortment of 10p bags are made beforehand by a young leader. During set-up time an adult leaders notices the young leader eating sweets whilst making up the bags.

2

Two young people regularly serve as sidespeople at the popular all-age service. Before the service a friend dares one of them to trip the other during the collection. They oblige, and as the other person falls awkwardly on the chancel step, various coins roll across the stone floor.

3

At junior youth group a small gang of girls aged 12-13 years are teasing another girl who is reading a novel. Upset by the comments the girl looks to the young leader for help but the young leader embarrassingly ignores the situation and walks away.

4

A holiday club meeting has been scheduled to finalise preparations. Two young leaders have been given the responsibility of leading the drama. However, at the meeting only one of the young leaders turns up. As the meeting begins, a text is sent to find out where they are. A text comes back saying: 'gone to the cinema with friends instead'.

5

The worship group is practicing before church. An accomplished young musician plays in the group regularly and is playing lead guitar. During the practice the worship leader asks if he can turn his amplifier down as it is too loud. The boy turns it down but at the start of the service turns the volume up even louder.

6

The Church Council was asked to consider a request by the youth leaders to fund a youth residential. Unfortunately the request was not granted and a derogatory rumour quickly circulated amongst the young people. Clearly upset by the decision, a young leader reacts on Facebook posting the following message: "Stupid PCC!!!! Can't believe all they care about is the graveyard and roof! Hope the roof collapses on them! #LOLs".