Art in Church: Mission, theology and the beauty of God

Wednesday evenings in June and July 2022

7.00-8.30 pm

In this series we will look at a range of artwork in churches across the diocese. We will spend some time looking at the art; and thinking about what it has to say for the mission of the church and how we speak of God.

Sessions will include time to look at the artwork; reflections on its artistic, historical, and theological significance; and a short time of prayer with the art.

Feel free to come to one or all of the sessions:

Bullet Journaling

Thursday, 12th May 2022

1pm-4pm

Hillside House, 1500 Parkway North,
Stoke Gifford, BS34 8YU

Led by Janey Hiller

Do you have a task list in one place, a project planner in another, a journal somewhere else and all accompanied by various scribbled notes, ideas or reminders on your desk, fridge door, corkboard, phone, diary or wallet? Do you wish it could all hang out nicely together in one place? Or do you sometimes struggle to be intentional about sabbath, wellbeing or self-care? Oh... and do you like stationery!?! Then Bullet Journaling could be for you!

Bullet Journaling is a creative, notebook-based method of personal organisation. I have been using it for a while now for managing priorities and tasks, setting goals, collating ideas, journaling, planning, being intentional about sabbath, wellbeing, habit tracking - so many things! There is a formal 'system' but it's very simple, and the great thing about bullet journaling is that once you've got the basics, you can develop it in whatever way works for you – it can be as methodical or as creative as you want it to be!

This is intended to be a fun, interactive workshop!

Please bring a notebook and pens (preferably coloured!) with you to get started.

Open to all

9.45am - 4pm

Led by Richard Wood, Head of Ecclesiastical Financial Advisory Services

The aim of this seminar is to help clergy (and their partners) at all stages of their ministry, demystify financial matters, and to help you plan for your financial future no matter how far you may be from retirement.

This useful seminar will be led by independent financial advisers from Ecclesiastical Financial Advisory Services and we will also be hearing from subject experts from The Church of England Pensions Board, clergy pension and housing teams.

The speakers will address personal financial planning issues and questions that in their experience face most clergy during their ministry and will encourage you to think ahead about planning for your financial futures.

Key themes for the day:

- General financial planning hints and tips including budgeting
- The importance of planning ahead and saving for the future
- What to expect from the clergy pension scheme and possible options for saving more and options for any non-church pension schemes you might have?
- Saving & investing hints and tips including tax efficiency, investment risks, and ethical investment options
- The impact of living in employer provided accommodation on buying property (or re-mortgaging) during your ministry
- Retirement housing support available from the church
- Protecting your family and income
- Answering your financial questions (questions are encouraged!)

One to One Consultations - After lunch, should you wish, you have the option for a twenty minute one to one session regarding financial advice and planning, the clergy pension or clergy retirement housing. Please indicate your interest when responding.

Lunch will be provided.

Mental Health First Aid

Led by Rebecca Cross,
Alice Kemp, and Helen Styles

See dates and times below

Cost: £30 (to cover the manual and other materials).

Mental Health First Aid (MHFA) teaches people how to identify, understand and help someone who may be experiencing a mental health issue.

MHFA won't teach you to be a therapist, but it will teach you to listen, reassure and respond, even in a crisis – and even potentially stop a crisis from happening. On completing the course, you will receive a nationally recognised qualification as a Mental Health First Aider.

On the course you will:

- Learn how to recognise warning signs of mental ill health, and develop the skills and confidence to approach and support someone while keeping yourself safe.
- Learn how to empower someone to access the support they might need for recovery or successful management of symptoms. This could include self-help books or websites, accessing therapy services through their GP, their school or place of work, online self-referral, support groups, and more.
- Gain an understanding of how to support positive wellbeing and tackle stigma.

You will need to pay for your own course manual which costs £30. Your parish may cover this for you. The diocese will provide the course to you free of charge (the usual cost is £300). If this cost is preventing you attending, please be in touch.

Zoom Reading Group

Roughly every other month, a group of clergy and LLMs read a book together and gather to discuss it on Zoom. Come to them all, or simply to those that particularly interest you. Reading the book is helpful, but you don't need to have finished it to attend the group.

- “To be able to keep sharp and accountable to others in a reading group is certainly just what I need” – Clergy person
- “I really enjoy the reading group” - LLM

Books can often be bought from the publishers, or from any bookshop. Three online booksellers worth checking are:

- Aslan Books <https://www.aslanchristianbooks.com/>
- Bookshop <https://uk.bookshop.org/>
- Eden <https://www.eden.co.uk/>

Books for Summer 2022

Wednesday, 18th May
12 noon - 1.30pm

Gregg Okesson, *A Public Missiology: How Local Churches Witness to a Complex World
(Baker Academic, 2020)

How can Christians witness to the complexity of our world? Gregg Okesson sees congregations as the primary means of public witness in and for the world. As Christians move between churches, neighbourhood, work and other public spaces, they weave a thick gospel witness. This book explores how local congregations can ‘thicken’ their witness in the public spaces in which they live, work, and play.

Priya Parker, The Art of Gathering: How we Meet and Why it Matters (Penguin, 2019).

We spend our lives gathering - first in classrooms and then in meetings, weddings, conferences and away days. Yet so many of us spend this time in underwhelming moments that fail to engage us, inspire us, or connect us. We've all sat in meetings where people talk past each other or go through the motions and others which galvanise a team and remind everyone why they first took the job. We've been to weddings that were deeply moving and others that were run-of-the-mill and simply faded away. In The Art of Gathering, through analysis of all sorts of meetings imaginable, Priya Parker gets to the heart how to design a truly transformative gathering. An expert on organizing successful gatherings whether in conference centres, crisis zones or her living room, Parker shows us how to create moving, magical, mind-changing experiences - even in spaces where we've come to expect little.
