

Worksheet 6.2: What if?....

You go with mum to the supermarket. She tells you to stay close but you stop to look at a toy on the shelves. When you look round you can't see her anywhere.

What should you do?

How will you keep safe?

An older child from another class says unkind things to you at playtime and sometimes even pushes you around. They say that if you tell on them they will really hurt you.

What should you do?

At break time you pass the front entrance and notice that an adult you don't recognize wants to come into the school. The school secretary is not in the office because she is attending to a poorly child.

What should you do?

While using the computer at home something comes onto the screen that makes you feel uncomfortable or worried.

Who should you tell?
